New Skirt For 1866.

The Great Invention of the Age is

HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc., etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST BRADLEY & CARY, PROPRIETORS of the Invention, and SOLE MANUFACTURERS, 97 CHAMBERS, 79 & 81 READE STREETS New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana, de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. THE UNION BANNER

SALISBURY, N. C., DECEMBER 4, 1865

J. J. STEWART. EDITOR

THE LEGISLATURE.

This body has commenced the work of proscription in good earnest, and as long as they work at it honestly we shall say all right.

But we think we see a political scheme on hand developed by the election of that warm and unflinching Confederate, Judge Battle, to the Supreme Court Bench. And it is this—it is well known that a very large proportion of our people denied the right of secession, and opposed it practically until Mr. Lincoln called upon them to put into practice their past professions, and then for lack of moral courage to face the storm, they yielded and went over to the secessionists "horse foot and dragoons," and many became, and are this day, more bitter in their feelings and intense in their hatred of the Northman, than the old "original pannel." This election of Judge Battle, who went over only after Mr. Lincoln's Proclamation, but became a thoroughgoing war man after, indicates an intention to fuse this element with the "straights" in opposition to the secessionists proper. If that's your horse for this heat, all we say trot him out. Learn this, Mr. John Pool et id omne genus—that it is not in your power by any kind of combinations or schemes to put under foot forever these men. We say that they ought to stand out of the way or be put out, at present, but when we re-assume our governmental relations, your little, low, mean huckstering scheme of political advancement and revenge, will be blown to atoms by an indignant and justly indignant people.

SUPREME COURT.

The election of Hon's. R. M. Pearson and Edwin G. Reade, will prove we think highly acceptable to the people, and to the bar. For while the former stands among the lawyers of North Carolina, if not first "in the very first line" and the latter has sufficient intellect to make himself a thorough lawyer; these gentlemen are peculiarly acceptable at this time, as they are both known as having "given no aid, countenance, counsel, or encouragement," to the rebellion, that we ever heard of, and are therefore, classified as "straights."

But while we say, fill all the political, and rather than "kick up a row," every office, from Standard keeper up, with the "straights," we do insist that if a departure is to be made from that rule, let it be in favor of a hot-headed war, Vance, Davis Secessionists. We are not prepared to be eternally getting on our marrow bones, and saying take everything, and then have these so-called Union men elected, as hot, bitter and ultra confederate as Judge Battle was to the Supreme Court Bench, and attempt to palm it off on the North as the election of an anti-war man. Judge Battle is an amiable gentleman, and is a fair case lawyer, and personally his election is very agreeable to us, but this sly attempt to run him in under false colors, must and shall be exposed.

We may allude to this matter again.

U. S. SENATORS.

We hope that our distinguished townsman, the Hon. N. Boyden, may be elected to the U. S. Senate. A great deal of the mischief caused by the late elections may be nullified by electing Mr. Boyden. He has to-day, we venture to assert, more weight and influence at Washington, than all of the Legislature put together. Mr. Boyden is a "straight" Union man, and a gentleman of unsullied private character and of the very highest order of talent. His great weight might enable him to carry through one of the "so-called."

Mansion House.

We called in at this old and excellent Hotel on last Saturday. We thought we would catch the new proprietors napping, but "nary time. We found on the table, gotten up in the best style of culinary preparation, beef, mutton, chicken, pork, vegetables &c, &c., and last, but not least, came custards, pies and many other things too good to mention. We ate hartily, because we were not accustomed to have so many good things all thrust upon us at one time. Finding that we had been foiled in our object, we come to the conclusion that the Mansion Hotel is some pumpkins, and that if the traveling public wish to "strike ile," the Mansion House is the place to do it.

LEGISLATURE ELECTIONS.—On Friday last R. W. Best, Esq., of Greene, was elected Secretary of State. Hon. D. A. Barnes, Judge, and Mills H. Eure, Esq., Solicitor of the 1st District; Hon. E. J. Warren, Judge, and W. T. Faircloth, Solicitor of the 2d district. The Constitutional amendment has been ratified.

OUR COMMONERS.—Mr. Blackmer has been appointed on the Judiciary, and Mr. Holmes on the Finance Committee of the House.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

THURSDAY, Nov. 30th, 1865.

The Speaker called the House to order pursuant to adjournment. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Bird, of the Presbyterian Church.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved

The Resolution introduced yesterday, to send a message to the Senate proposing to raise a joint committee of five on the part of the Senate, to report joint rules for the government of the two Houses during the session, was taken up and adopted. The Speaker appointed on the part of the House, Messrs Waugh, Jenkins of Warren, Henry, Baxter and Wilson.

Mr. Russell introduced the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, There are numerous indications that a large portion of the people of the Northern States of this Union have been led to believe that the people of North-Carolina are not well disposed towards the general government; and whereas, it appears from a telegram from His Excellency, the President of the United States, to the Provisional Governor of this State, published in the "Standard" newspaper, of the 29th inst., that His Excellency has been misinformed as to the views and sentiments of the people of North Carolina, and especially as regards the issues involved in the late election of this State; and whereas, it is right and proper that this General Assembly should correct, as far as may be in its power, such erroneous impressions and vindicate the character of the State, therefore be it

Resolved, That the people of North Carolina have accepted the terms offered them by the President of the United States, and complied wtih all the conditions laid down by him as necessary to restore our practical constitutional relations with the other States of this Union, and that they have done so in good faith and with the intention and determination to preserve and maintain them.

Resolved, That the people of North Carolina are loyal to the Government of the United States, and are ready to make any concessions, not inconsistent with their honor and safety, for the restoration of that harmony upon which their prosperity and security depends.

Resolved, That we have confidence in the ability, integrity and impartiality of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and that in behalf of the people of North Carolina we hereby return our thanks to him for the kindness, liberality and magnanimity which he has displayed towards us.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to His Excellency, the President of the United States, and to the Congress, when it shall assemble.

Mr. Jenkins of Werren advocated the immediate adoption of the Resolutions. He thought they expressed the sentiments of the entire people of North Carolino, and tha tbeing uttered as the earnest, spontaneous declaration of the people, would have the effect of removing from the minds of the President and the Northern people any corroneous opionions, concerning the loyalty of the State to the Union and the Constitution.

Mr. Henry desired an opportunity to consider the resolutions with more deliberation; he deprecated hasty legislation upon a subject of such importance. These resolutions contemplated nothing less than the entire revolution of public sentiment at the North in regard to this State, and therefore they should be duly considered and acted on with that cars becoming this dignified body. He moved tha tthe resolutions lie on the table and be printed.

Mr. Blackmer moved to amend, by referring the resolutions to a special committee of five, and that they be printed. The amendment was accepted by Mr. Henry. The motion was agreed to, and Messrs. Russell, Blackmer, Jenkins of Warren, Cameron and Henry, constituted the committee.

A message was received from the Senate proposing to go into the election of an additional engrossing Clerk. The message was concurred in and Messrs. Simmons and Lyon appointed, on the part of the House, to superintend the election.

Mr. Sharpe withdrew the name of Mr. James A. Mooer.

Mr. Manly withdrew the name of Mr. Busbee.

The committee reported, whole number of votes 128 necessary to a choice 70, and that Mr. Barnes had received 50, Mr. Hampton 101, Mr. Busbee 4, and Mr. Page 3, and that Mr. Hampton was therefore, elected, and the report concurred in.

Hon. W. N. H. Smith, member elect from the county of Hertford, was qualified and took his seat.

A communication was received from His Excellency the Provisional Gov., transmitting his message to the General Assembly, and the same being read,

Mr. McKay moved that it be transmitted to the Senate with a proposition to print 5 copies for each member of the two Houses, and it was so ordered.

[The message will be found in another column.]

A message was received from the Senate concurring in the proposition to print five copies of the Governor's message for each member of the General Assembly.

Mr. Waugh moved to send a message to the Senate proposing to go into the election of United States Senator, to fill the unexpired term of Hon. Thomas L. Clingman.

Mr. Jenkins of Granville, moved to amend by proposing to elect two U. S. Senators, and it was not agreed to.

The motion of Mr. Waugh was then adopted.

A message was received from the Senate proposing to go immediately into the election of three Judges of the Supreme Court.

Mr. Jenkins of Warren, moved to lay the message on the table and asked for the yeas and nays. The motion did not prevail yeas 38, nays 57.

The proposition of the Senate was then concurred in, and Messrs. Blackmer and Jenkins of Warren were appointed to superintend the election on the part of the House.

Mr. Hutchison nominated Hons. R. M Pearson, Wm. H. Battle and M. E. Manly; Mr. Henry nominated Hon. E. G. Reade; Mr. Russell nominated Hon. B. F. Moore; Mr. Blackmer nominated Hon. Nathaniel Boyden and Hon. R. R. Heath, and Mr. Caldwell nominated Hon. W. N. H. Smith.

Mr. Murphy moved that the House adjourn to 10 o'clock to morrow morning and it was not agreed to,

A message was received from the Senate refusing to concur in the proposition to go into the election of U. S. Senator.

Also, a message concurring in the proposition to raise a joint committee on Rules,

Also, a message proposing to raise a joint committee to inquire into the condition of the railroads of the State, and the proposition was concurred in.

The committee to superintend the election of three Judges of the Supreme Court reported that there were 159 votes cast, necessary to election, 60; that Mr. Pearson had received 133 votes; Battle 97; Reade 89; Manly 68; Moore 34; Smith 32; Boyden 15; and Heath 11; and that Pearson, Battle and Reade, having received the requisite number of votes, were elected; and the report was received and concurred in.

Then on motion of Mr. Russel, the House adjoured to 10 oclock to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 28, 1865.

PARDONS.

Notwithstanding the order of the President directing that no more pardon warrants be issued at present, applicants continue to flock in upon the Attorney General. Among those who called this morning were R. M. T. Hunter, and Generals Terrill, of Texas, and Brown, of Tennessee. Included in the list of applications for pardon which have been filed away for future consideration, are the petitions of 122 ex-officers of the United States navy, 129 Confederate general officers, and eighty-eight members of the Confederate Congress. There is also a large list of leaders, including George Davis, Attorney General; Trenholm, Secretary of the Treasury; Seddon, Secretary of War; Mallory, Secretary of the Navy; and Reagan, Postmaster General, of the Confederates; A. H. Stephens, their Vice President; Governors Smith and Letcher, of Virginia; Lowe, of Maryland; McGrath, South Carolina, Moore, of Alabama; and Clark, of Mississippi. There are also several large petitions for the release of Jeff. Davis, which with the others are filed away with the mass of documents accumulated in the Pardon Bureau, to await developments. Many of the applications for pardon are endorsed by Generals and Senators of the United States.

PARAGUT COURT MARTIAL.

The case of Commodore Craven, which has occupied the attention of this court several weeks past, submitted to the court this morning for a verdict, after the reading of a lengthy defence by counsel for the accused. Up to two o'clock P. M. the court was engaged in deliberating upon a verdict, which, when rendered, will await the approval of the proper authorities before it will be promulgated.

This court will doubtless be dissolved immebiately, as it is understood there are no other cases to be brought before it.

LOOKING AFTER THE DEAD.

An officer has been dispatched to the battle-fields in the Shenandoah Valley by the War Department, to look after the proper interment of the Union troops who fell in the many engagements in that vicinity during the war.

It is understood that a cemetery will be laid out in the Valley, in which the remains of all the Union troops now buried there will be interred.

WHITE HOUSE.

The Cabinet meeting was protracted ty-day until a late hour. All the Secretaries present. The Mexican question, it is understood, was elaborately discussed, with what results, however, are of course unknown. No visitors were admitted to-day.

GENERAL NEWS.

RETURN OF SIR MORTON PETO-HIS IMPRESSIONS OF MEN AND THINGS IN THE UNITED STATES—THE FENIANS—THE ADAMS AND RUSSELL CORRESPONDENCE—SPAIN AND SOUTH AMERICA.

By the steamer Novia Scotian, at Portland we learn that the Hibernian, Hansa and City of New York, had arrived out.

SIR MORTON PETO'S SPEECH.

Sir Morton Peto, the newly elected M. P. for Bristol, had returned from America. He had made a public address, in which, after a few words urging Earl Russell's claims to the confidence of the nation, he went on to speak of his journey. Referring to Canada he declared that in no part of England is there greater loyalty for the Queen than there is in Canada. Then, coming to the Western States, he spoke of the extraordinary increase of population and industry, especially at Chicago, which, a few years ago, was but a village, and now contains 250,000 inhabitants. Turning eastward, to Boston, he said that there was no sign of the war could be seen, for that, during the war, $5,000,000 had been spent on public buildings and improvements.—Adverting to the national debt, he said that no one could doubt the ability of the people to pay it, and that any one who suggested the idea of repudiation would be scouted with indignant contempt.

Fenianism he treated as utter folly. Finally, he declared his belief that it would be impossible for two nations like England and America, to imbrue their hands in each other's blood, and he [illegible] for the appointment of a commission to investigate such claims as the two countries might agree to refer to it.

THE FENIANS IN IRELAND.

Stephens, the Fenian head centre, has been remanded for further examination. Martin Huggius, reported to be another head centre, had been arrested at Tuam and committed for trial.

It appears that £200 reward had been offered for Stephen's arrest. The police took him into custody in his own bed room, his wife being in the apartment at the time. The house was searched and in an adjoining bed room were arrested Kickham, Duffy and Brophy, who were all in bed at the time. The police thirty in number, were all armed but the prisoners offered no resistance. Pistols and balls were lying about their rooms and the police found immense stores, enough to support them for a year.—Consideroble money was found on their persons. It is stated that the police found a check, dated New York, so late as September 23, for $1525, in favor of one of the prisoners previously arrested. Another account says he had been living luxuriously in a magnificently furnished house, stored with provisions for twelve months surroundad with a wall six feet high, enjoying the society of hif wife and friends, with an ample supply of arms and ammunition.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS RESTORED.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The President has issued a proclamation restoring the writ of habeas corpus in the States and Territories of the United States excepting Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, S. Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Looisana, Arkansas, Texas, the District of Columbia, and the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona.

New York, Nov. 30.—Flour has declined 5 a 20 cents. Wheat declined 1 a 2 cents. Corn dull. Lard and Whisky steady. Cotton quiet—sales 3,000 bales at 51 cents. Sugar steady. Coffee firm. Gold 148¼.

Next with regard to the conduct of the British Government Earl Russell contends that they have done all they could do in order to prevent the grievances complained of, and in a memorandum attached to the letter he gives a summary of all the proceedings which have been taken under the foreign enlistment act. Nevertheless, he will not contend that the act is perfect. He thinks the two governments might wisely determine to consider whether a better measure mingt not be devised.

MISCELLANEOUS.

By the Scotia which arripad in New York the 29th from Liverpool the 18th, we have the following intelligence:

The Spanish aggression in Chili occupied the attention of the European press. A memorial of influential men, at a meeting held in Liverpool, to Earl Clarendon, asking that prompt action be taken for the protection of British vessels and British interests in Chili.

Washington, Dec. 1.—No doubt now exists that Congress will be organized without difficulty. No credentials of any member from the South have been received, excepting those of Tennessee and Virginia.

About one hundred members are now in the city.

New York, Dec. 1.—Rio Janeiro advices state that Col. Wood and his party, who went to Brazil to negotiate for loan for some six hundred Southurn planters had met enthusiastic reception, the Emperor promising all his aid in furtherence of the object.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Commons:

I regret that a severe and painful illness, from which I am still suffering, has prevented me from preparing for your consideration, a more full and detailed statement of the condition of public affairs, and of the progress which has been made in restoring North Carolina to her natural position as a member of the Union under the Federal Constitution. I am gratified to state, however, that my health is improving, and I hope soon to be in a condition to impart to you at length any information in my possession in relation to public affairs, which you may desire.

The progress thus far made in the work of restoration, has been attended by great labor; and I have been very anxious to discharge my duties as Provisional Governor, under the instructions of the President in such a way as to promote the best interests of the State, and to ensure a restoration of our constitutional relations to the Federal Government at the earliest practicable period.

We can entertain no hope that confidence and activity in business will be revived, or that our people can even begin to renew their former prosperity, until the State shall have been fully restored to her place in the Union. The greatest good of the present and of all coming generations, will be embodied in the practical fact that we are once more a part of the freest, proudest, and most prosperous government in the world. Secluded as the State unrealized, the State must necessarily languish in all its interests, and instead of availing herself of her great natural advantages, and springing forward in competition with other States in the career of wealth and prosperity, she will become more and more impoverished.

"Let, us, then, omit nothing which may be deemed necessary, or even expedient, to attain the great end we have in view, to wit, the complete restoration of the State in all its constitutional relations to the common government. Let the divisions and differences which exist among us, and which are calculated to obstruct the work of reconstruction, disappear under the influence of a more intense and a more devoted patriotism. He who does anything now, whether by word or act, calculated or intended to embarrass the national administration, or to obstruct the work of reformation incurs a grave responsibility and can be no friend either to the Federal Union or to North Carolina.

The Convention of the people of this State, recently in session, very wisely ordained,

1st. That the so-called ordinance of secession, adopted the 20th day of May 1861, "is now, and at all times hath been, null and void;" and that "the ordinance of the Convention of the State of North Carolina, ratified on the 21st day of November, 1790, which adopted and ratified the constitution of the United States and also all acts and parts of acts of the General Assembly, ratifying and adopting amendments to the said Constitution, are now, and at all times since the adoption and ratification thereof have been in full force and effect."

2d. That "slavery and involuntary servitude, otherwise than for crimes, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall be and is hereby forever prohibited within the State."

3d. That it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to provide for the payment of all debts and obligations created or incurred by the State otherwise than in aid of the late rebellion. But that "all debts and obligations created or incurred by the State, in aid of the late rebellion, directly or indirectly, are void, and no General Assembly of this State shall have power to assume or provide for the payment of the same, or any portion thereof."

These are safe and proper steps in the right direction and such as were expected of the representatives of a loyal people.

But in order to remove the last obstacle in the way of restoration it is indispensable that the Legislature shall ratify the amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting the existence of slavery throughout the United States. I herewith transmit to you a communication on this subject, from Hon. Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State, and also a certified copy of the joint resolution which has passed Congress on the subject, approved February 1st, 1865.

I beg leave, gentlemen, most respectfully and earnestly to urge on you the propriety of ratifying this amendment unanimously, at the earliest practicable moment. It is the wish of our best friend, the President of the United States, that this shall be done. Such ratification cannot fail to hasten our restoration to the Union, and thus lay anew for us and our children the foundations of permanent prosperity and glory.

Under the provisions of an ordinance passed by the Convention at its late session, I have appointed the Hon. B. F. Moore, the Hon. Richard S. Donnell, and Wm. S. Mason, Esq., Commissioners to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws upon the subject of Freedmen, and to designate such laws and parts of laws now in force, as should be repealed, in order to conform the statutes of the State to the ordinance of the Convention abolishing the institution of slavery.

In conclusion, permit me to assure you, gentlemen, of my readiness and anxiety to co-operate with you cordially and zealously in everything which may be calculated to relieve our unfortunate and beloved State from her present depressed and unhappy condition.

With sentiments of high respect, I have the honor to be, &c.,

W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

THE FARMER,

A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE, THE AUXILIARY MECHANIC ARTS, AND TO HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

To be Published at Richmond, Va.

The undersigned propose to publish in this city—commencing in January, 1866—a monthly Journal to be styled "THE FARMER," whose pages shall be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, the auxiliary Mechanic Arts and to Household Economy. A Journal which shall faithfully and successfully represent these cardinal interests by the dissemination of practical information & thorough, sound instruction, will supply a desideratum which is widely and deeply felt in the present exigency of our affairs, and ought, therefore, (we should think) readily to commend itself to popular acceptation, and command, in return, a remunerating patronage. "Faithfully" and "successfully" to support these interests, requires a Journal of the highest order of its kind. It is to nothing short of this high standard of public usefulness that "The Farmer" aspires, and to reach and maintain it, will be an object of unremitting effort and unsparing liberality of expenditure. It seeks recognition as a worthy organ of these cardinal branches of national industry, of which it assumes the special advocacy, and hopes to meet the requirements of the position satisfactorily to those whose interests are more immediately involved.

We are fallen upon times of peculiar and unexampled difficulty. The sudden and violent overthrow of African slavery, without premonition of its near approach, or preparation for the event, interwoven, as it was, with the very texture of our social constitution, has rendered all past experience with respect to the economy and regulation of labor nugatory, razed to its foundation the entire system of Southern agriculture, and necessitated its re-construction and re organization in accordance with the recent changes in our circumstances and relations. Suddenly launched upon a tempestuous sea of danger and perplexity without the polar star of experience to guide us, we must, as best we can, improvise the measures which appear at the moment the best adapted to the purposes of present security, and as calmly tsentative, await the slow progress of a we mayeffort and empirical practice for the development of facts and the matured fruits of experience and observation from the careful comparison and generalization of all which, sound principles may be deduced for our future guidance and direction. Then will a new creation of order, harmony and beauty spring out of the chaotic disorder and confusion which now prevail. Then will the desolation and ruin which mar the face of the country be repaired. And not till then shall wholesome and stable rules and regulations control the entire system of husbandry, with its adjuncts and subsidiaries, and give force and efficiency to the administrative measures necessary for the conduction of all its operations to the most satisfactory and profitable results.

To facilitate and promote these important considerations, a good agricultural journal is an obvious necessity. A medium of communication, for the interchange among farmers of views and opinions entertained by them respectively on subjects appertaining to their common calling, is indispensable, and they especially need a vehicle of intelligence for the transmission of the earliest notice of improvement in any department of husbandry, that, by a wide diffusion of such notice, the improvements may be adopted in practice and thus prove a general benefit to the farming fraternity.

Now, to sum up in a word: It is to meet this obvious and pressing necessity that the proprietors propose to publish the above described paper, and in behal of the undertaking they respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

The best talent, both practical and theoretical which the country affords, will be commanded in aid of this enterprise, and no expense will be spared in the effort to make the Journal complete in all respects.

It will be printed on good paper and with clear type, and will comprise thirty two pages of reading matter. An advertising sheet of capacity sufficient to accommodate the advertising patronage of the Journal will be added.

Papers disposed to exchange with The Farmer will send their papers at once.

We publish below proposals for carrying the mails weekly to the County seats of this State, until the first of January next. We trust that persons who may be disposed to make proposals will do so at once, as mails are very much needed. We learn that ten dollars per mile will be allowed for this temporary service. SONG OF THE FREEDMEN.

BY A. R. WATSON.

A freedman sat on a pile of bricks,
As the rain was pattering down;
His shoes were worn and his coat was torn
And his hat was without a crown.
He viewed the clouds and he viewed himself,
And shook the wet from his head,
And a tear dimmed his eye as he saw go by
A boy with a loaf of bread,
And he raised his voice in a dolesome tone,
That sounded like a gong,
While the rain came down on his happy crown,
And sang to himself this song.

De wind blows cold, but I's done with toil,
And lef de cotton patch;
I guess old Massa tink he count
De chickens 'fore dey hatch.
I totes no more de heavy load,
Nor drives old Missus round;
I wonder who dey's gwine to get
To work de patch ob ground.
Den fling away de rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

But I tink last night. as I tried to sleep,
Upon de muddy ground,
While de rain was drippin' on my head
And de wind was whizzin' round,
I'd like to have my light'ood fire
And my cabin back again,
For de wedder's gettin berry cold
Out here in all his rain.
But den I's done wid rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come. de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

I's got all ragged 'bout de knees,
My shoes is worn out too;
My coat's so old dat from each sleeve
De elbow's comin' froo.
And dere's the children dat once played
In shirt tail 'bout de yard,—
I cannot buy a shirt for dem
De time's so berry hard.
But fling away de rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress do Lord I's free.

De odder day when Pinky died,
I tink it berry good,
Dat de dear Lord should take her off
Before dis cold wind blowed;
But den 'twas hard for her die—
I wish she'd not been born—
I's 'fraid she perished, for she asked
About de rice and corn.
But den I's done wid rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

And Dinah sits dere on the ground
And looks so thin and poor,
She cannot sing the song she sung
About de cabin door,
Her poor old limbs are almost bare,
Her cheek bone's coming froo;
I almost wish de Lord would come
And take her up dere too.
But den she's done wid rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord she's free.

I dreamt last night ole Massa come
And took us home wid he,
To de log cabin dat we lef'
When first dey got us free;
And dere I built de light'ood fire
And Dinah cooked de yam,—
Dey say that dreams are sometimes true;
I wonder if dis one am.
But den I's flung away de hoe;
To hab a jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of, operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric. with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines a prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in this enterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the disappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

H. RIVES POLLARD,
Richmond, Va.

Wanted, an Agent in every town in Virginia and all the Southern States.

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To aronse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.
